Information about our readers

Overview of our universe:

Interactive and collaborative portal

- The site evolves based on decisions made by registered users.
- What makes YogaPartout different:
- A mature Wiki platform comparable to MediaWiki.
- Verified knowledge about yoga (overseen by a dedicated board of directors).
- An ad hoc committee managing the portal's development.
- Over 400 developers contributed to building this structure (framework used by thousands of small, medium, and large companies).
- Promotes self-sufficiency.
- Based on a non-competitive system: We only send newsletters when there's fresh, high-quality content.
- We're not the best, we're different!

Profile of our members

- Here is the typical profile of a registered user:
- Woman in her 30s.
- Professional in the workforce (35% college graduates, 10% university graduates, 55% others).
- Location: 75% French-speaking Canada, 20% Francophone Europe, 5% other.
- Average time spent on the platform: 10.33 minutes per visit – 46% are new monthly visitors.
- Newsletter: We send one newsletter every two weeks, and it is read by almost half our members.

For collaborators:

If you collaborate to help propel this portal into the future, your advertisements in our newsletters are free.
