Important announcement - Official launch of this web site is set for February 2024

This registration page is being translated and some components are in French.
Per example the shopping cart for International registration is in French... even if this page is in English.

This regular translation gives you access to

- Creation of your own space (We're a Wiki-Groupware) using tiki.org technology providing you participate in the DAO meet ups regularly. Your personal page includes a notepad and hyperlink bookmark functionality
    - Not sure what is a DAO meet up? Please complete this multifunctional form to ask any questions you may have
- Access to the calendar (we do that for you)
- One info letter via our channels. Ask for the list
- Access and invites to all important meet ups
- One to one consultations
- Faster ticket resolution services
- ... and all the free usual services any decent community manager can give

Your registration (officially paid, confirmed) does not give you access to

- PDF placement - we do that for you
- Creating your space on our server - That is for the DAO members who participate. Please complete this multifunctional form to ask any questions you may have

Floating banners

New

Our banner circulation service is ready to roll out. We were thinking about you so that we can invite you.
Please complete this multifunctional form to ask any questions you may have

On the French side, the info is up to datecette page
